Gun Control
Issue Overview: Millions of Americans own guns and use them legally for protection, hunting, and sport. Some of those guns, however, fall into the hands of criminals who use them for unlawful purposes. More than 30,000 Americans are killed or injured every year by firearms. In attempts to prevent criminal gun violence, the federal and state governments have passed some gun control laws over the years to regulate the purchase, ownership, and use of firearms. Outstanding Online Resources for All Instructional Strategies

Project-Based Learning

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:

Learn360 (pp. 4–5): This ultimate resource of more than 100,000 media assets—including videos, interactives, comprehension exercises, and fact sheets—is ideal for both student projects and classroom activities.

Today's Science and Science Online (pp. 16–17): Find a Science Fair guide and experiments and activities that can be done in class or off-site.

World Geography & Culture (p. 25): Original maps, unique tools for comparing and ranking countries, and comprehensive information on all major countries and provinces make this a must-have resource for any geography or social studies project.

Blended Instruction

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:

History databases (pp. 22–23): Videos and original, SMART Board–friendly slideshows offer a visual introduction to key topics and themes for in-class overviews, plus comprehensive Topic Centers provide virtual study guides.

The World Almanac® for Kids (p. 13): This multisubject resource features important Homework Help and Teacher Resources, plus plenty of interactive puzzles and games for in-class activities.

1:1 Learning Initiatives

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:

Middle / High School eBook Subscription (p. 26): Thousands of titles across all subjects, with simultaneous use and no check-in/checkout, ensure each student has access to any title at any time with no time restrictions.

Curriculum Video On Demand and Learn360 (pp. 4–7): These premier video and multimedia resources allow content to be embedded into online catalogs, distance education courses, and learning management systems. With Curriculum Video's high school/advanced-level videos and Learn360's K–12 multimedia assets, the entire district will have video and other media appropriate for every student at the level they need.

Flipped Classrooms

KEY INFOBASE RESOURCES:

Issues & Controversies (p. 21): Assign the Oxford-style debate videos to watch at home, and use the printable handouts and discussion questions to spark in-class discussion and debate.

Bloom's Literature (p. 15): For homework, students can watch the classic plays and use the special guides on writing about authors, while 10,000+ essay topics inform research and provide starting points for lectures and activities.
